FRIDAY, AUGUST 18, 1906.

Jacksonville, Texas, shipped 128 solid car loads of fruit and vegetables during this season.

The Manchester (England) Union says Paderewski has lost two fingers, but a cablegram adds:
"The report is not credited in London." Error in transmission, probably. Maybe it should have been: "Paderewski has taken two fingers."—Galveston News.

Although Fitzhugh Lee and W.
J. Bryan were kept in the back ground during the late little unpleasantness with Spain, they are still recognized as two of the greatest true blue Americans on the American continent, and when the proper time comes the people of America will verify this assertion in no uncertain language.—Brenham Banner.

a solid front and a common purpose. While it is true that hereafter we should be more ready for war than we were when hostilities opened with Spain, it is equally true that the potential resources of this country were never more widely acknowledged than they are today.—Globe Democrat.

The Brenham Press says: People owe it to the community in which they live to do everything they can that will in any way insure to its advantage. This is true not only in a general way, but it applies to everybody who lives in the community. A neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more than some one's who lives elsewhere. This should be borne in mind in buying goods. Citizens can afford to pay the home merchant a fair price for his goods rather than send money away, knowing as they do that every dollar the home merchant makes will help in sustaining local schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

THE NEW VESSELS OF THE NAVY.

They Will Be Superior to Any Now Afloat, and Will Be Able to Go Longer Distances.

Washington, Aug. 18.—A naval program for presentation to congress involving the immediate construction of 15 warships has been adopted by the naval board of experts to whom the subject has been referred by Secretary Long. It provides for three sea going barbette turret battleships of 13,000 tons displacement and a minimum of 18½ knots speed when the vessels are loaded to their deepest draught or an average speed above 19 knots under ordinary cruising conditions; three first class armored cruisers of 12,000 tons and 22 knots speed; three second class protected and armored cruisers of 6000 tons displacement and 20 knots speed similar to the Maine type but highly improved, and for six protected cruisers of 16 knots speed.

The reduced speed of these ships, which is uniformly about two knots less than that proposed at the preliminary meeting of the board was brought about by the desire to secure unprecedented range of action on account of the increasing responsibilities of the United States in the Pacific in the certainty that these vessels or most of them would be required to make up the fleet in that ocean. The sacrifice of speed to endurance was made with a view of securing vessels of at least 8000 knots radius, or capable of steaming straightaway from San Francisco to Manila and Samoa. The board decided that the Pacific rather than the Atlantic would be the chief depot of American naval operations in future. All the vessels, however, will be as speedy as the fastest vessels now building abroad and they will be eminently more practicable in endurance, strength and formidability.

The main battery of each of the battleships will be composed of four 12-inch rifles in turrets on the center line fore and aft, and the secondary batteries will mount from 14 to 16 rapid fire 6-inch guns. In addition to these there will be unusually large auxiliary batteries of assorted sizes.

The first class cruisers will be covered with heavy armor and will be armed with two 8-inch guns with 4-inch rifles in turrets and 10 to 12 6-inch rapid fire guns on the broad side. They are to be superior in every way to any ships afloat in the world today.

The details of the six smaller vessels are not yet determined upon, as all the energies of the board were first directed to the heavier vessels.

All the ships will be sheathed. They will have quadruple expansion engines and water tube boilers, and with the exception of the smaller craft, they will be equipped under water with torpedo tubes.

Outrages of the Spanish.

Copyrighted, 1906, by the Associated Press.
Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 18.—Reports are coming in from all directions of outrages committed within the Spanish lines. It is doubtless that many of these are exaggerated, but the rumors of a massacre at Ciales are confirmed.

War Tax Will Be Continued.

Washington, Aug. 18.—It is the opinion of officials of the treasury department that there will be no necessity for another bond issue growing out of the war, but that the present revenue law with possibly slight modifications should be retained on the statute books for an indefinite period.

One Boy Kills Another.

Denison, Tex., Aug. 18.—Willie Martin, aged 8 years, was shot and killed about noon today by Joe Broyles, aged 14. The boys were playing in a tent, and Broyles got his father's revolver, and as he thought, extracted all the shells. He was snapping it when it was discharged, the ball entering Martin's head and ranging down.

Big Suit for Damages.

Denton, Tex., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Nannie M. Allison, administratrix of the estate of the late S. P. Allison, has filed suit in the district court here against the Mutual Fund Life association for debt and damages amounting to $27,100. This suit is on account of insurance not paid.

Choate Addresses the Association.

Saratoga, Aug. 18.—A large audience gathered at the convention hall here to listen to the annual address before the American Bar association by Hon. Joseph H. Choate of New York. The address elicited frequent applause.

Mayor Faires' Sudden Death.

Flanoria, Tex., Aug. 18.—Mayor R. O.
Faires died suddenly of heart failure Tuesday night. Mayor Faires was 57 years old, a native of Fayette county and a prominent citizen here, where he has resided for the past 20 years.

John Corbett's Sentence Commuted.

Sacramento, Aug. 18.—Governor Budd has commuted the sentence of John Corbett who has been serving a 5-year sentence at San Quentin for burglary. His term would have expired next Thursday.

Hanging in Kentucky.

Stanford, Aug. 18.—George Stephenson, colored, was hanged here for the murder of Joe Tilford, a white boy 14 years old, which occurred at Crab Orchard on July 4.

Bubonic Plague at Bombay.

Bombay, Aug. 18.—The bubonic plague is again epidemic. There were 103 deaths officially reported last week.

General Tchernoff Dead.

Tchernoff, the conqueror of Tashband, died suddenly here.

Spanish-America.

Every true American heart should throb with sympathy at this time for Mexico at the mention of the days September 15th and 16th, which are the same to Mexicans as July 4th is to Americans. These are Mexico's two greatest holidays.
President Diaz was born on September 15th at 11 o'clock at night and one hour later (September 16th) was the birthday of Independent Mexico. It is no wonder therefore that the Mexicans love these two holidays, which represent so much to them. On the night of September 15th at exactly 11 o'clock from every city, town, hill and dale over the great Republic, one mighty shout issues from a million free-men's throats, "Viva Mexico!"
"Viva el Presidente!"

In Mexico the day is celebrated with great splendor. Nearly a quarter of a million of people take part in the festivities and the scene rivals anything ever presented on the American Continent.

On the day preceding the President's birthday it is customary to hold the unrivalled "Battle of Flowers." Long before the sun begins to peep over the hills there can be seen thousands of Indians wending their way to the city, bringing with them large supplies of rarest and choicest flowers.
Houses are decorated in the greatest profusion, and the public buildings and statues show a practical evidence of the great fertility and richness of the soil. It is one of the days when every one has a free license: The rich and the poor mingle and pelt one another with flowers in the most democratic manner.

This is followed by two days given up to most extravagant celebrations, conducted with pomp and eclat never witnessed in our Democratic Republic. They also have their "Liberty Bell" which has a history equaling ours and not least among the ceremonies is the ringing of this bell.

On this occasion an excellent opportunity is offered Americans to visit this land of wonder, the "Egypt of America" by the I. & G.
N. R. R. Tickets will be sold on September 10th and 11th to Mexico City and return at remarkably low rates, final return limit 30 days with stopovers at pleasure in Mexico. Choice of routes via Laredo or Eagle Pass, or for an additional charge of $5.00 tickets will be sold going via one route and returning the other.
